

The conference venue will be at Hotel Real Palácio which is located at the center of Lisbon.
As the Hotel Real Palácio is fully booked, please have a look at the other three options, all within walking distance to the conference hotel. You can do your booking directly via the website of the hotel.
Please be aware that April is peak season in Lisbon this year due to Song Contest and Easter Holidays, so the earlier you book your room, the better.
